WHS for Supervisors and Managers

You are invited to participate in Tocal College's WHS for Supervisors and Managers. This is a nationally accredited training program designed to implement and monitor an organisation's work health and safety (WHS) policies, procedures and programs in the relevant work area in order to meet legislative requirements.

What does the course consist of?

- One day interactive workshop
- Time: 8:30am to 5:00pm
- Includes post course work to be completed and submitted for assessment that is relevant to your workplace.
- Links to templates, information and printed resources will be provided to all students.

Accredited training

The WHS for Supervisors and Managers course is aligned and delivered against vocational education and training requirements. Successful completion of assessment tasks will result in achieving a Statement of Attainment and can contribute to a nationally-recognised qualification
